Time: 6pm

Location: VISIONS

Attendees: K. McWalters, K. Dayton, Tim&Jen, Megan Hollingsworth, Deanna, Mark&Kathleen, Rachel came in partway through

Agenda Item: Register members and collect $100/family

- Collected (6) $100 checks from Tim&Jen, Katherine McWalters, Katherine Dayton, Owkes family, Sherry Staub, Deanna

!!Action Item: Chronicle Reporter

- Mark will follow up with Abby

Agenda Item: HRDC project near Storymill

- Mark followed up with Tracy (ex 4890): 63 units, a small community house, parking on the perimeter but no community dinners. We believe this does not fit what we are looking for. ½ market rate, ½ affordable housing.

Agenda Item: Forum on website – feedback/subscriptions

- Tim & Jen gave positive feedback. Need to subscribe to forum to get email updates. Katherine McWalters will try again to register, Mark will help Deanna register.

Agenda Item: Future Meetings

- Public is no longer invited to member planning meetings as this slows things down
- At this time no additional social events. Do not need lawn sign at this time
- !!Action Item!! Mark will send out an email with doodle survey for next meeting time and commitment level

Agenda Item: Vision Exercise

- Jen and Tim read the visioning questions aloud, only received results from Tim, Jen, Kathleen, Mark, and Denali.
- !! Action Item!! Jen will create a follow up survey with more specific questions about location and cost

Discussion: Affordable Housing

- There are many people looking for affordable housing, while we'd like to include them, there is concern that it will derail the project. See follow up email from Katerine Dayton.
- Deanna is pursuing the HRCD home-buyers workshop to learn more about if and how she can afford to purchase a unit.
- Megan is looking for affordable housing
- Rachel is looking for affordable housing
